

JACKIE SIEGEL

jackie.siegel@gmail.com · 415-627-8944

Education

Master of Public Health

University of British Columbia, 2014

Bachelor of Science in Global Resource Systems

University of British Columbia, 2008

Relevant Experience

Rosov Consulting

Project Associate, February 2021 – Present

- Project manage mixed-method evaluation projects for local and international clients with up to 10 team members and $500k budget
- Coach and train graduate students and community leaders in evaluation thinking and strategic planning through mentorship and facilitating workshops
- Conduct quantitative and qualitative research, including data collection, analysis, and results reporting, to support clients' ongoing learning needs
- Prepare a DEI style guide on how to use identity markers (such as gender, race, class) in research through an audit of 200 surveys, literature review, and internal consultation

American Jewish Committee

Senior Associate, May 2019 – February 2021

- Implemented data management policies and processes to meet increasing communication needs between organization and constituents with 10% growth in constituent database size
- Analyzed virtual event metrics and develop targeted marketing and development strategies for National and regional campaigns

Independent Contractor

Events and Communications Coordinator, Jan 2019 – Apr 2019

- Organized three-day Indigenous Languages and Education Symposium for 75 community and agency partners with 93% of attendees reporting the event as good or excellent
- Responsible for all logistic, administrative, communication and technical operations, as well as offering content support to event chair
- Designed and produced event logo, graphics, and program materials

Department of Education, Culture and Employment, Government of the Northwest Territories

Indigenous Languages Project Coordinator, Jul 2017 – Aug 2018

- Continued engagement with the Regional Indigenous Languages Coordinators to finalize and publish a 10-year Territorial Indigenous Languages Framework, which received full partner buy-in
- Developed and administered grants to provide $350,000 to organizations to offer community based second-language instruction programs, including working with each grantee to help build up their program plans
- Analyzed policy options for Territorial Indigenous language instruction options for ECE executive leadership

Department of Education, Culture and Employment, Government of the Northwest Territories

Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist, Nov 2014 – Jun 2017

- Led development and implementation of Territorial education evaluation strategy, including methodologies, key metrics, and preparing reports
- Initiated a training series to facilitate knowledge sharing among department staff and senior management with the intention of advancing program reporting and accountability procedures
- Relationship building and strategic facilitation of the Regional Indigenous Languages Coordinators committee through ongoing regional site visits and in-person central meetings to support the development of regional language evaluation plans and initial drafts of a languages framework

Yellowknife Pride

Board President, March 2016 – February 2018

- Expanded outreach across all areas, resulting in doubling of board members, creation of a youth committee, and renewed communications with city officials
- Prepared media releases and appeared on television, radio, newspaper, and magazines to promote Pride events

Technical Skills

Graphic Design in Adobe Photoshop, Canva

Email Campaign Design in MailChimp, Luminato

Data Analysis and Visualization in Microsoft Excel, Google Sheets, Qualtrics, SPSS

Presentations & Publications

Siegel J, Allen S. (2016). What can data tell us about language learning? Presentation at the Indspire National Gathering for Indigenous Education, Toronto, ON.

Siegel, J. (2016). Theory, Tradition and Tools: New Methods for an Aboriginal Languages Revitalization Evaluation. Presentation at the Canadian Evaluation Society Conference, St. John's, NL.

Siegel J, et al. Workplace interventions to reduce HIV and TB stigma among healthcare workers – where do we go from here? Global Public Health 2015; 10:8